

MICE ON MAIN

A VERY SPECIAL SCAVENGER HUNT

MICE ON MAIN was local high school student JIMMY RYAN's 2000 school project. JIMMY wanted to do something special for the community to highlight its character and individuality. As part of his project, he raised funds and created downtown Greenville's famous scavenger hunt for children of all ages. The charming bronze mouse statues were then created by well-known South Carolina native JAN WELLS.

Based on the popular children's book GOODNIGHT MOON, a bronzed sculpture of the book and one little mouse can be seen on the fountain in front of the HYATT REGENCY HOTEL. The rest of Greenville's bronze mice are spaced here and there, on one side of MAIN STREET or the other, from the HYATT to the WESTIN Poinsett HOTEL.

HAPPY MOUSE HUNTING!

111 NORTH MAIN STREET • DOWNTOWN GREENVILLE • (864) 235-1883

1 Begin your search on North Main where the water flows in and out of the hotel. You'll find the father mouse, MARVIN, reading his book. He can't hide—take a good look!

2 MOTHER MAGGIE is just across, sitting where she can see MARVIN. When she looks down the street, she can see their five baby mice, placed here and there, all so sweet.

3 Cross the street and walk a bit. You'll find MARVIN, JR. at the top of the stairs where coffee lovers and computer gurus meet and poets love to count their feet.

4 MARCLEY's somewhere near the plaza square. Look around. You'll find him there.

5 MILLIE's a high "high-tech" girl. You'll really have to search, but give it a whirl.

6 MITCH is waiting for you and me, very close to where you might find a money tree. Follow him into the alley; you'll be lucky to find him, so don't dally.

7 MELISSA is always a happy sight; you'll see her when the light's just right! Have a seat, and the two of you will likely meet.

SO MICE TO MEET YOU ON MAIN ST.!

8 You'll find AUNT MIFFLIN where there's old money. She's looking at the flowers, honey.

9 MIFFLIN's husband, UNCLE MILES, loves to eat Italian. He's by the rain spout. If you've found him, give a shout!
